

Self-Esteem

You can't just say or think "I like myself" in hopes that it will become true. That's self-esteem paid for with a charge card. Genuine self-esteem has an "iron price." It must be paid for in advance, with hard currency. You really can't feel good about yourself until, in spite of obstacles or fear, you take meaningful action.