

Dear global taxpayers,

As caring public servants, we feel that the world would be a much better place with a few more really good particle colliders.

Sincerely,

concerned physicists

100 km Circumference