

"The Mayflower was full of C students.
Their idea was that, given freedom, responsibility, rule of law, and some elbow room, the average, the middling, and the mediocre could create the richest and most powerful country ever."

– P. J. O'Rourke