

I don't know if anyone has had a full understanding of the system we call mathematics or if such a degree of understanding after Dr. Kurt Gödel's ideas about it is even possible, but imagine you did.

Think of the adventures you could have, just within your own mind. Maybe in some way, you would see the Face of God and be close to sharing in His mind.