

ESTROVIOLENCE

Males are more physically violent than females. However, through poison and manipulation, females can directly or indirectly cause life-threatening or mortal violence to a person's physiology and life processes.