

Each choice takes you down a path which eventually forks. Another choice. Another path which forks. On and on. Bad choices will happen, and there is no undo. We'd like to think we can find our way back to that first choice, but we can't. There comes a choice you never think you'll have to make, but you cannot choose not to choose. In the end, you are responsible for everything that happens to you because you have chosen.
