

Special Effects

Technological wizardry can only take a movie so far before its novelty wears off. Enough!

Make movies with characters we can emotionally or intellectually respond to and plot lines which make them believable. Character appeal is primary. Plot lines are secondary but close behind. Special effects are tertiary, a distant third.