

What can you believe?

You can't wholly believe the news because of bias. You certainly can't believe politicians. You can't wholly believe most movies because of hidden or not so hidden agendas.

To an extent, you can believe in the play and results of sports contests, but not always some of the commentary, which accompanies them.