

Alien Believers

SOME QUESTIONS

Do the lives of sentient aliens in societies with the greatest technologies also have a spiritual dimension? Do they have souls?

Do they stand in awe at the miracle of God's creation?

Do they bend the knee in houses of worship as testament to their faith?

Do they symbolically hide their mortality with clothing and adornments?

Are they generally guided by principles like transgression, forgiveness, and redemption?

Do they have their sacred texts and creation stories?

Do they believe in an apocalypse and afterlife?

Do they generally wonder if other civilizations in the universe exist which also have not only technology but spirituality.
