

Satan Club in High School

Satan's greatest trick is making us think He does not exist.
Would this or a synonymous statement be in their charter?

Evoking His name means evoking all the values and principles associated with His name. Chief among these is the principle of evil, and a major tool of evil is the use of deception. So how much of the public or private statements by members, club-related or not, can be believed?