

Keep Evil Close

Do not flee from evil; keep it close to make your resistance more significant.

Think of your life as walking on a tightrope where you must follow the straight and the narrow.

Just kidding.

